

A tree's beauty lies in its branches, but its strength lies in its roots

Tree of Life

(Plant the future, nourish the roots)

We invite our youth to immerse themselves in interactive value-based teachings from Vedic texts like Bhagavad-Gita & Shrimad Bhagavatam. This knowledge will help them think critically, morally, and decisively.

Various studies have shown that young adults, who have a strong foundation, based on spiritual values and principles, experience a fulfilling life.

Highlights

- Fun, interactive activity and discussion-based learning
- Character building through role models
- Development of critical thinking
- Students develop strong lifelong friendships based on shared values
